

We are All Missionaries

I wrestled with God on what to share this week, I prayed to see where to start with this profound truth of how we are all missionaries.

He wants to start with you (Us)!

You all have been missionaries in your daily lives.

Do I have permission to share what he had shown me? (God Speak Now)

You are his most beloved and prized creation, that he continues to shape and mold to accomplish his great work in the simple things you have done, are doing daily and all you will do in the future.

He loves you beyond measure, He is proud and excited of the work you have already done for him and what you are about to do through him.

Are you ready to receive what he has in store for you as a missionary in your daily life?

Let's move into the word of God and see what he has said regarding our missionary work.

Romans 10:13-15

13 For Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings of good things!

As I stated earlier that I wanted to share what God is saying to you (Us), His Church, His People.

Today, he is reminding us, that we are sent by him to share the good news, the good works he has done in our lives, what he has done on the cross of Christ for everyone in the world.

Go forth people of God, You are all missionaries.

You knew (w)hat would happen from the beginning of time.

Yet you wanted us in your family and you still do.

Help us not get sidetracked by what we want.

Give us eyes to see, as you see, the brokenness in this world, in the lives of those we love, and in ourselves.

Give us a heart that grieves for those who cannot acknowledge their brokenness and come to you with it, who somehow cannot see and embrace that brokenness because of their fear- a fear that continues to grow.

The harmony that should be, cannot be.
But you can do much with the string that is given to you. Help us to play on that string the notes you want us to play, so that others can see and know that you are the one who has given the song, so that the glory is Yours now and through eternity.

Page 41 “Wrapped in God’s Love”

Again, I want us to dig into the word of God to keep us steadied on our journey today.

Mark 5:1-20

Many of us would look at this passage of scripture and say how grand and profound the casting out a legion of demons is and say to yourselves, I don't think I could do that.

What we may miss is what this one man's soul meant to Jesus. Much of Christ's great work was for individuals on a singular personal level.

You all have this opportunity every day.

I know God has seen what you have done, planting the seeds of his Love, sharing his word, showing, living and preaching his Gospel on a daily basis. It is in these small things you have done, are doing and will do is what being a missionary sent by God is.

We are all Missionaries!

Pastor Dale has been leading us in caring for our Soul during many messages, classes and prayer groups.

These are all opportunities for us to find health and strength for the work we are already doing but can do much more vigorously when we allow him to heal our souls.

What?

Act 1:7-8

7 He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

How?

Matt. 22:37-40

37 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ [a] 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Matthew 6:9-13

9 “This, then, is how you should pray:

“Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
10 your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us today our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation,[a]
but deliver us from the evil one.[b]’

He is using you!

We all have been missionaries in your daily lives.

Remember what God has done in your lives, how he has used you and seek him to continue to use your individual gifts and circumstances to share his Gospel.

You are his most beloved and prized creation, that he continues to shape and mold to accomplish his great work in the simple things you have done, are doing daily and all you will do in the future.

He loves you beyond measure, He is proud and excited of the work you have already done for him and what you are about to do through him.

Are you ready to receive what he has in store for you as a missionary in your daily life?